ROSEBEN, THE WHIRLWIND.

RUNS SEVEN FURLONGS IN 1:22, SHATTERING THE RECORDS ON ALL COURSES.

Davy Johnson Is Said to Have Wagered $50,000 That the Son of Ben Strome Would Beat 1:25—An Exciting Performance.

New York, October 16.—Roseben, the champion sprinter of the year, and the fastest horse of his time, ran seven furlongs at Belmont Park this afternoon in 1:22. There were nearly 15,000 people at the course and they practically cheered themselves hoarse at this most wonderful achievement on the part of Davy Johnson's bread winner. The best previous record for seven-eighths of a mile was 1:23, made by Bella B., over the straightaway at Monmouth Park, July 8, 1890. She was then a five-year-old and carried 103 pounds. The best record for seven-eighths of a mile around two turns is 1:25. It was made at Saratoga August 8, 1902, by The Musketeer, he being then a four-year-old, and carrying 108 pounds. At Sheepshead Bay, June 26 of the present year, Halifax, with 119 pounds up, ran seven furlongs over the main course, around one turn, in 1:24. That was the record for the distance on oval or circular courses until today. The course over which Roseben ran is straight from the starting point for one-quarter of a mile, then there is a wide sweeping bend of three-eighths of a mile and then a straight homestretch of one-quarter of a mile. The previous record for this course was 1:25, made by the four-year-old Aeronaut, with 126 pounds up, June 5, last.

The race which produced this amazing performance was the fifth, a condition affair for which there were originally entered fourteen horses. Roseben's presence with only 126 pounds up scared out all save the unconsidered Beaulere. The prices quoted were 1 to 80 Roseben and 60 to 1 Beaulere. Only a few wagers were registered in the betting ring. George Rose bet $800 to win $10 with his next door neighbor, "Little Peter," the California plunger, risked $8,000 to win $100 with Billy Beverly. There was practically no market on the race, a few pikers took 60 to 1 against Beaulere for a dollar here and there. The blustering weather and a biting wind prevented the general public from wagering on a time proposition, but from the clubhouse there came rumors about the time the horses reached the post of big doings in this direction. After the performance it was told that Davy Johnson had wagered $50,000 at even money that his horse would break all existing records at the distance and he won with plenty to spare. It was generally believed among the best informed that the coterie of opulent clubhouse commissioners between them sustained a loss of $150,000 laying even money against Roseben to beat the American record for a circular track.

Shaw, who had the mount on the big horse, sent him off at full speed. He never gave him a moment's respite and amidst general excitement and exclamations of wonder Roseben finished out the heartbreaking journey staggering like a drunken man. When Roseben returned to the scales with drooping head and hard heaving sides, the band played "Hail to the Chief."

Although Tourenne's brilliant performance in the Rancho del Paso Stakes was dwarfed by Roseben's astounding feat, yet the Forsythe colt's achievement was one of the most notable on record for a two-year-old. The ease with which the Odd-fellow colt won astonished all beholders.

L. Williams was all but left at the post with Albert F. the favorite in the opening race. Since W. B. Jennings took his departure for California, Williams has made a poor showing.

The steeplechase was productive of as exciting and interesting a contest as has been seen this season. Ray, who had the mount on Bound Brook, the receding favorite, rode like a novice. In this case it was the horse and not the rider that won out. Jockey Jack Martin, accompanied by his valet, left for Canada today for a brief visit. Object, matrimony.

BAD TRACK, BUT GOOD RACING, AT DALLAS.

Dallas, Texas, October 16.—It was gray and dark today and the track had become stiff and holding. Despite the unfavorable conditions, a good crowd turned out to see six well balanced races. Dr. Flowers won his maiden race at the meeting with Pacheta, a half brother to George Vivian. It was also the horse's maiden run. George Baldwin's promising colt, Montalban, at the favorite's price, took the second race in a busy finish with Doric and Buster Jones. The latter showed all the speed of his famous dam, Pearl Barnes, but failed to stay. Fred Wood's filly, Sand Storm, the first foal of the famous May Beach, signalized her three-year-old debut by taking the third race handsomely. San Primo went down to defeat in the fifth, Durbar winning easily. Mart Gentry cantered home in the sixth.

HUDSON DENIES MRS. PEPPER'S CLAIMS.

Lexington, Ky., October 16.—Scott Hudson says he is surprised at the action of Mrs. E. O. Pepper in filing a suit for damages against him. He denies the allegations in her petition. He says he entered into a contract with James E. Pepper, and that he did not know Mrs. Pepper in the transaction, and that a full settlement had been made with Colonel Pepper. He says he stands ready to pay every dollar he justly owes.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE CHAMPAGNE STAKES.

Like several other stakes now annually run at Belmont Park, the Champagne Stakes originated at the famous old "saddle bags" track, Jerome Park, now a reservoir in the New York water system. When racing was abandoned there the stake was transferred to Morris Park and run there from 1890 to 1904, inclusive. Grinstead, famous afterwards as Lucky Baldwin's premier sire, Hyder Ali, Virgilus, Maeduff, Leo, Dew Drop, Connemara, Azra, Ramapo, Ben Brush, The Friar, Plaudit, Kilmarnock, Garry Hermann, Endurance by Right, Stalwart, Oiseau and Perverse, all brilliant racers, were among its long succession of winners. The history of the event is as follows:

TURF WAR AT LOS ANGELES NOT LIKELY.

George Rose Says There Is Room for Two Tracks and Dates Can Be Divided.

New York, October 16.—The publication of the prospectus of the new racetrack to be established on "Lucky" Baldwin's ranch, near Los Angeles, Cal., failed to disturb the serenity of bookmaker George Rose's mind. Rose is one of the principal owners of the Ascot Park track and, as such, is more deeply interested in the new racing venture than any one in the east.

"The proposed racetrack is a long ways off," he said today. "It cannot be completed before next fall at least. When it is ready, I will welcome it because I think two tracks will serve to attract more horses to that part of California than one. I'm willing to meet the new officials and arrange for an equitable share of racing dates. There will be no racetrack warfare such as New Orleans experienced last year. There is room enough for two tracks."

Hope to Be Ready for Racing Next Spring.

Los Angeles, Cal., October 16.—If the plans as outlined by the Baldwin Racing Association do not fail, Los Angeles will have practically continuous racing after Thanksgiving Day, as it is proposed to rush the work of building the track at Arcadia with a view to holding the first meeting next spring, beginning a few days after the meeting at Ascot Park.

Architect A. F. Rosenheim is drawing the plans for the grandstand, clubhouse and paddock. Surveyors have been on the ground for a week and work will be started upon the track as soon as the surveyors finish their task of laying it out. The buildings will be started as soon as possible, which general manager Creveling says will be within thirty days.

Secretary Albright gives the information that three-fourths of the stock of the association was subscribed before the papers of incorporation were drawn and that only a small portion of the remaining one-fourth of the stock issue will be placed on sale, as the association has ample funds for carrying out its plans.

President Thomas H. Williams, of the New California Jockey Club, and J. D. Spreckels are not stockholders in the association, but gave their promise to "Lucky" Baldwin several months ago that they would become associated with him in the enterprise when it was organized and it is expected that they will take the stock allotted to them and become members of the advisory board.

Organization of the association was conducted without trumpets and was incorporated as the Angelus Realty and Improvement Company, of which E. S. Albright is secretary, and when the Baldwin Racing Association was ready to ask for incorporation, the attorney for the association prepared the necessary papers in asking for the change in name to the Baldwin Racing Association. The plans were not made public until the organization was complete and the stock sold. Thus the association starts out in reality and not in prospect.

Application will be made by the association for recognition by the Pacific Jockey Club. This action will be taken immediately, as the status of the association with the governing body must be decided before active preparations are put in force for holding the meeting and inviting horsemen to participate. The stake book will be prepared and issued before the first of the year, and it is believed by the management that the horsemen who race at Ascot Park next season will liberally patronize the meeting.

M'CAFFERTY'S REINSTATEMENT A QUESTION.

President Williams Says There Is No Immediate Prospect of Such Action by Pacific Jockey Club.

"The news that 'Boots' Durnell had been reinstated by the Pacific Coast Jockey Club stewards caused considerable surprise among turfmen hereabouts," says the New York World. "This action of the Pacific Jockey Club stewards was totally unexpected. It was known that John W. Gates had been busily engaged for months trying to effect this change of heart in the men who ruled Durnell off, but as he had failed so long turfmen had regarded the incident closed.

"The Jockey Club has not acted on the Durnell-McCafferty case, and until they do so Durnell can neither visit the local tracks nor race horses. But as the Jockey Club rulings are reciprocal in cases of this kind it is only a matter of days before Durnell will be in good standing again.

"It was the opinion of racegoers generally that the Pacific coast officials should not stop with Durnell, but include John J. McCafferty in the rulings of clemency. The cases were similar and practically hinged on each other; if Durnell was worthy of pardon then McCafferty was entitled to the same kind of treatment, local turfmen declared. If this clemency is not shown to the latter then the much vaunted 'All men are equal on and under the turf,' is only a lie."

The Morning Telegraph says that Durnell will lose no time in making application to the Jockey Club for a trainer's license and it is the general understanding that when he gets it John W. Gates will provide him with money to buy horses. The Telegraph quotes President Thomas H. Williams, of the Pacific Jockey Club, as having said that he sees no immediate prospect of the reinstatement of John McCafferty. The Telegraph concludes with this:

"It is not likely, however, that he will remain off the turf after this season. Racing officials are not as inexorable as they appear to be at times. They rarely enforce a life sentence against a man. McCafferty is living at Sheepshead Bay, and Frank Van Meter is training the horses of Jerry Wernberg which were in his charge at Los Angeles last winter."

SCRANTON PLANS FOR A MILE TRACK.

The Scranton Driving and Field Club owns the half mile track at Scranton, Pa., where last week a meeting of four days for runners was held. The Club was so much encouraged that it is planning racing on a more pretentious scale for next year. It has been decided to build a regulation mile track. The track is built over an abandoned coal mine. The drainage is perfect. The water is carried through small drain pipes to the old mine shaft, which is in the center field. Scranton has a population of over 100,000 and from Wilkesbarre and other nearby places there is another 100,000 to draw from. The miners took great interest in the racing.

ALL GRASS; NO DIRT.

New York, October 16.—The only exclusively grass race course in the United States is to be constructed at Locust Valley, L. I., by a syndicate of wealthy devotees of steeplechasing headed by Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Harry S. Page and Paul D. Cravath. The course will be laid out on land on the further side of the Central Boulevard that extends from Brookville to the clubhouse on the horse-show field. There will be a one mile steeplechase course and a one mile flat course, the chasers having water and brush jumps and the stiffest kind of a Liverpool to take on their route.

RESPRESS TAKES TWO RACES.

JUDITH LOUISE AND HARDING CARRY HIS COLORS SUCCESSFULLY AT LOUISVILLE.

Meadowbreeze Escapes the Jam at the Start and Wins the Handicap—Court Forbids the Starting of Debar.

Louisville, Ky., October 16.—Today's card at Churchill Downs was as difficult a guessing proposition as speculators have been up against since the opening of the meeting. The fields in most of the races were large. Three favorites captured purses. The longest priced winner during the afternoon was Miss Officious which won the third race with 20 to 1 against her. Meadowbreeze, winner in the six furlongs handicap for all ages, was most favored in the race. He was away running and escaped the jam that occurred at the post. Goldmate, the favorite, suffered most by the interference and had his chances practically destroyed by the mixup.

Two from the stable of J. B. Respress won during the afternoon. He backed both. Judith Louise took the opening race, while Harding, in the fifth, had things much his own way and scored a ridiculously easy victory. Harding has returned to the good form he displayed before the injury that caused his temporary retirement.

The officials were served with a court order forbidding the starting of Debar in the fourth race. The order was granted in court this morning on complaint of Thornton Moore, who is part owner of the horse. Moore alleges that the horse is not in fit condition to race. There has for some time been a misunderstanding between Moore and Will Woodard, Jr., who trains the horse.

Presiding Judge Charles F. Price was not in the stand today. He went to Hillsboro, O., to be in attendance at the funeral of Captain "Jack" Price. W. H. Fizer will ship John L. Inglis to Aqueduct. Jockey Seder will ride him in all races. A. Bellw and J. Gass shipped their horses to Latonia tonight.

At a sale of horses in the paddock before the races, the following owned by various owners were disposed of: Saronola, to C. E. McClain, for $70; Tyburnia, P. W. Naper, $75; Lanzo, W. Coleman, $80; Walter McLean, W. Coleman, $80; Sun Bird, W. Coleman, $80; Helm, G. Torsen, $55; Wilkey, E. Shorthen, $25. The horses bought by W. Coleman were shipped to Campbellsville, Ky., tonight. They are in charge of J. C. Ferriss, Jr.

TRYING TO SAVE BROWN FROM PRISON.

New Orleans, La., October 16.—An effort is being made to save "Curley" Brown from prison. Some of his friends are urging that Judge Baker permit him to pay a fine of $1,000 instead of serving the three months in addition to the fine of $500. Before he was sentenced yesterday Brown made a statement in his own defense and pleaded that in all his turf career nothing had ever been shown that reflected on his integrity. Brown said he lost more than $40,000 in the fitting up and operating of the Majestic restaurant in Cincinnati, representing his savings. He came here and rented the building on Gravier street for a commission house. Knowing nothing about the business he took Jake Hirschberg and gave him a twenty-five per cent in the business and half the commissions. He rented a share of the Cotton Exchange stock and placed it in the name of Hirschberg, as Hirschberg was to run the brokerage shop. Brown says he found that he was under heavy expense, and realized that it would be six or eight weeks before Hirschberg could be elected to membership of the Exchange. Witness said that he then decided to open a poolroom and to confine the play to the members of the Panama Club, but the thing got too big for him and ran away from him."

NEW HORSE AND AUTOMOBILE CAR.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has ordered six cars from a new model, designed for the transportation of horses or automobiles. Two of the cars have been finished and were put into service last week. The Toronto Sunday World describes the car as having been "built exactly after the style of a first-class coach, has provision for sixteen stalls, all of which can be removed to make way for the carriage of automobiles. There is also a big space in the center in which there is ample room for the men and all the feed and hay that can be required. The car is built on a most solid and substantial scale, with iron-faced rubber-lined doors and fastenings that elephants couldn't break or move. It is sixty-eight feet long, nine feet wide on the inside, weighs 80,000 pounds and cost $8,000. Splendidly ventilated, it is doubtful if there is a better horse car running on any railway line anywhere. At present it is proposed to use the two cars finished for moving and advertising automobiles, a local company having engaged them for a trip first to Halifax, thence all along the line to Vancouver and back again to this city. There are few horses moving at this season of the year."

HEFFERNAN TO RIDE FOR M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, October 16.—James McLaughlin, Jr., has engaged the western lightweight jockey, Heffernan, to pilot his horses at Pimlico. Young McLaughlin will take a string made up of horses belonging to his father and other owners to Baltimore. Heffernan is a promising little chap, but he must learn to be more alert at the post before he can hope to achieve success in the saddle.

TRAINERS AT NEWMARKET ARE CHURCHMEN.

One Is a Warden, Another Reads the Lessons and Several Are Sidesmen.

An interesting article on Newmarket appears in The Badminton for October. It seems that questions have so often been asked about the different stands on the heath that the editor decided an authentic and detailed record would be of interest to his readers, and so he had this one compiled. It appears that all the stands that were on the classic heath in 1850 have disappeared. The only landmarks left are "The Buses" and the "Devil's Ditch." During T. Gardiner's management "The Buses" were religiously preserved from damage by high palings being fixed; they are alive and flourishing, and the "Ditch," which has existed from time immemorial, is an eternal structure, through the powers that have several times lately desecrated the bank by digging out the chalk for road-making. Indeed, the writer is very severe in places on the good people of Newmarket. Thus he says towards his conclusion:
"The trainers at Newmarket are a go-to-church string; one is a churchwarden, another often reads the lessons, and several are sidesmen. The jockeys have not aspired to any of these offices. Tradesmen of the town are nearly all dissenters, and glory in having built a chapel on part of the site of the Merry Monarch's Palace. They don't mind raking in the shovels from the racing public, but are too moral to patronize the sport of kings; only two of them regularly attend the races on the heath.
When the late Sir Richard Wallace in 1879 began to sell his Queensbury estate in leasehold building plots the rage for building started, and continued up to the end of the nineteenth century. The town is now considered by some people to be over-built. At all events, Newmarket is suffering from the effects of several causes, notably the deaths of Colonel Mc-Calmont, Sir Blundell Maple, Prince Saltykoff and Sir James Miller, who all had large racing establishments in Newmarket."

ST. LEONARDS SHOULD GET GOOD HUNTERS.

St. Leonards, which has just been presented to the Breeding Bureau in New York, by James R. Keene, is a chestnut horse of style and quality, standing 16 hands 1 inch and weighing 1,250 pounds. He was one of the many celebrities bearing the white and blue spots to victory in many of the classics of the American turf. For the men interested in breeding the hunter, St. Leonards should rank second to none as a sire, as it has long been the desire of steeplechase men to get a second Hermit, this line of steeplechasers being especially desired in the sport between the flags. Reports from the keepers of the various stallions have been received at the office of the breeding bureau, and while these stallions were placed rather late in the year 1906, the number of mares served by them is gratifying to the promoters of this most important work, many of the stallions having received more than twenty matrons for this season with promises of a far greater number for 1907. It must be remembered that the breeding bureau, to increase interest in this line, has offered three premiums to the keepers of the stallions who have the most foals in 1907—$150 to the first, $100 to the second and $50 to the third. Ten of these stallions have been exhibited at the county fairs throughout the state of New York and they have created a most favorable impression, eight having been awarded first premiums, one second and one generally admired, while there was no special premium offered in which the horse could compete.

EDICT AGAINST CHICKENS AND CANINES.

New York, October 16.—Captain Hawes, of Colonel Bob Pinkerton's forces, is greatly worried over the way in which trainers allow their dogs to run loose over the course at Belmont Park. One day last week there were not less than three dogs snapping at the horses' heels while starter Cassidy was trying to get them off before a race. These dogs are apt to get out on the track and seriously affect the result of a race, and Captain Hawes has warned trainers about it repeatedly. At one of the tracks at a meeting not long ago a certain horseman, a chicken fancier, had his stable near the backstretch, and his leghorns and cochin used to flutter over and scratch for worms on the track. It is not recorded that their industry was magnificently rewarded, but they kept on grubbing for manna in the wilderness, so to speak, and several times chose race time for their operations. Their squawks and flutterings as the horses bore down upon them didn't exactly tend to steady the nerves of the highly strung thoroughbreds, and naturally Captain Hawes had a heated discussion with the owner of the fowls. Now he has sent out a warning that all chickens and dogs found on the course after 11 o'clock in the morning will be killed.

READY FOR THE OPENING AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., October 16.—Everything is in readiness at Latonia for the opening of the fall racing, which begins next Monday, October 22, and continues up to November 17. Secretary John Dillon has sent the book to the printers and it will be ready for distribution in a day or so. The patrons this fall will see some good racing, as all of the best stables going to New Orleans for the winter will take in the local meeting and try to lay up something before the long campaign begins.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

Jim K., Chicago. At that time we only got the straight post time betting at Dallas.

C. H. B., Middletown, O. Cannot say. Did not begin taking until after that date.

W. D. M., London, Ont. Average is obtained by adding opening and closing together and dividing.
High is not counted and is for information only.

T. L. G., South Bend, Ind. The rules of the room would govern the case, but in any event it would make no difference to you or your friend if neither of your horses was placed or ran fourth.

Dan K., Memphis, Tenn. Your bet on Security was a draw. It was obviously made on the third race from which he was scratched and did not attach to the subsequent race in which he was an added starter.

F. S., Washington, D. C. (1) Nothing more than such summaries as we publish. (2) The discrepancy only existed for a couple of days of disagreeable weather, during which almost a gale of wind blew steadily down the straight course in the horses faces and materially retarded their progress.

GOVERNMENT SEEKS SOME INFORMATION.

Bureau of Animal Industry Asks for Figures as to Cost of Raising Thoroughbreds.

The Bureau of Animal Industry in the United States Department of Agriculture is seeking information as to the cost of breeding and raising thoroughbreds for the market or the track, with an idea of encouraging farmers who own light mares to benefit by mating them with thoroughbreds if it is found that the cost be not too great. The following is a letter to John E. Madden and his answer on the subject:

Washington, D. C., September 25, 1906.

Mr. John E. Madden, Hamburg Place,
Lexington, Ky.:

Dear Sir—As you are probably aware I am collecting information concerning the comparative cost of raising horses for the market and for the racetrack, this information will be based on the statements of reliable breeders, and will, as far as possible, show the relative cost of raising roadsters, carriage horses, saddlers, standardbreds and thoroughbreds. I would be greatly obliged if you could furnish me with a statement of the cost of raising a racehorse up to the time he is placed in training, as shown by your experience.

This information is asked for simply because there is a dearth of it in our horse literature. The Department does not oppose the breeding of horses for racing purposes, but indeed believes that where farmers have light mares much benefit can be derived by the use of sound standardbred and thoroughbred sires of good conformation, size, quality and action. What we wish to know is whether such farmers should develop the offspring of such matings for the general market or for the racetrack. Awaiting an early reply, I am

Very truly yours,

GEORGE M. ROMMEL,
Animal Husbandman.

Sheephead Bay, L. I., October 10, 1906.

Mr. George M. Rommel, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.:

Dear Sir—In reply to your letter of September 25, not having my books to refer to, I cannot possibly furnish you with all the details you may desire, but the following statement of cost of raising a thoroughbred to the age of two years, at Hamburg Place, is fairly correct:

First year .....	$ 50
Second year .....	100
Keep of mare .....	50
Interest on cost of mare and allowance for barren years .....	50
Total .....	$250

My broodmares are select and consequently high-priced. Skilled labor only is employed, and costly buildings used for shelter. The average farmer should be able to raise thoroughbreds for about $100 less than above figures, and I add a statement which may be useful in furnishing the information you seek:

Pasture at $2 a month .....	$ 16
Grain with pasture at 10 cts. a day .....	24
Cost of wintering, at $6 a month .....	66
Estimate for stallion service, keep of mare and labor .....	50
Total .....	$156

Actual cost in feed and pasture should not exceed $106. There is so much latitude in the price of stallion fees—say from a free service to $100—that it is difficult to make a correct estimate of this item. Many farmers could use their broodmares, or so offset cost of keep. An average price for a broodmare might be put at $200. Where one or two mares are kept no extra labor is hired, and I think $50 would cover all expenses beyond the above $106.

The demand for hunting and steeplechase-horses is very much on the increase, and the farmer is the man to supply this want in breeding a good type of thoroughbred.

Would call your attention to a sale of broodmares. In 1903, being overstocked at Hamburg Place, I disposed of thirty-eight head, which brought a total of $14,626, an average price of a little over $340 per head. In 1904, I disposed of forty-two head, which brought $11,595, an average price of $276 per head. Seventy-five per cent. of these mares were in foal. Many foals the mares were carrying sold at public auction, while yearlings, at from $400 to $2,200.

Broodmares have not been bringing their value during the past few years. Farmers who are struggling to make a living from the raising of crops, could with but little extra expense, keep a few broodmares and realize handsomely from the produce.

In 1905, the fifty-five yearlings of Hamburg Place, at public auction, sold at an average price of $1,000 per head.

Yours very truly,

JOHN E. MADDEN,
Hamburg Place, Lexington, Ky.

Winner—B. f. by Maceo—Marloni (trained by F. Kelly).

Went to post at 2:17. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Judith Louise, away well and running to her best form, was a close contender from the start and, after taking the lead in the stretch, won with plenty in reserve. Hereafter showed improved form and stayed well in the final drive. Refined gained steadily and, finishing with a rush, would have been second in a few more strides. Malta tired in the stretch drive. Alyth was going gamely at the finish. Bonart ran a dull race and lacked speed.

Scratched—64850 Avondow, 99.

Overweights—Refined, 3 pounds; San Ardo, 4; Dulzura, 3.

65120 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. (1:39 1/4—5—109.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Winner—B. c. by Huron—California (trained by D. Hammond).

Went to post at 2:44. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Hadur, showing improved form, away well and given a good ride, was sent into a long lead from the start and won all the way with plenty in reserve. Inspector Girl was a sharp factor all the way, but was not good enough to beat the winner today. Minnehaha closed a big gap from a poor beginning and finished going fast. Heart of Hyacinth had to overcome interference and finished fast through the stretch. Suzanne showed speed, but was tiring fast in the last quarter. Dudley ran poorly and can do much better. D'Ormont ran well for three-quarters and will improve. Oural ran a good half.

Scratched—62255 Goldie, 108; 64900 Ferniere, 105.

65121 THIRD RACE—3/4 Mile. (1:13—5—121.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $300.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Ballyho (trained by D. Henry).

Went to post at 3:17. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Miss Officious, away well and showing much speed, followed the leaders close up to the stretch, wore down Lightning Conductor in the final furlong and won going away. Light Wool got off poorly and closed a big gap.

Scratched—65084 Caper, 99.

Incorrect weight in entries—Elancer, 88.

Overweights—Lightning Conductor, 3 pounds; Fair Fagot, 3; Electorine, 11; Light Wool, 21; Camp, 4.

Winner—B. c. by Meadowthorpe—Ill Wind (trained by J. Arthur).

Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Meadowbreeze was clear of interference, took a long lead at once and, showing superior speed, was never in danger of defeat. Militades, also favored at the start, ran a good race and tired slightly near the end. Envoy closed a big gap from a slow beginning and would have been second in a few more strides. Goldmate had scant chance after the start, was away in a tangle and suffered from interference. Pontotoc, also away poorly, ran fairly well and is running into good form. The others were always outrun.

Scratched—65074 Wee Lass, 94; (65106) Hector, 109; 65024 Marvel P, 95; 63827 Debar, 102.

Overweights—Goldmate, 1 pound; Retapaw, 2; Omar Khayyam, 13.

65123 FIFTH RACE—7/8 Mile. (1:26—5—116.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

CRITICS CALL FOUNTAINBLUE A "DOG."

"Fountainblue has completely puzzled 'Diamond Jim' Brady and other prominent turfmen," says the New York Sun of Sunday. "After crushing defeats in several races, including the Flatbush Stakes, and ridden on each occasion by Jack Martin, Fountainblue, with Shaw up, suddenly came to life and won the Triumph Stakes, at a mile, over the Brighton track week before last in a way that made owner Brady declare that he had a star two-year-old after all. But there were many critics who declared that Fountainblue did not beat much on that occasion, and that the next time he started with colts and fillies of good class he would be shown up in his true colors. Fountainblue was carded for the Nursery Handicap at Belmont Park yesterday. 'Diamond Jim' and a number of friends arrived at the track in a big automobile early especially to see the colt race. Shaw again had the mount, and when the odds opened at 4 there was a solid commission handed to the books from the Brady camp. In vain Brady and his followers looked through their field glasses for Fountainblue when the race started up the straightaway chute. The conspicuous red, white and blue silks worn by Shaw could not be made out at all, and it was not until the horses reached the last furlong pole that 'Diamond Jim' heaved a tremendous sigh and ejaculated: 'He's last. Well, what do you think of that?'

"He began to kiya as soon as the starter let them go. He's a yellow dog," exclaimed the critics who had predicted this defeat. But Brady wasn't ready to consign his colt to the cheap plater class and for the rest of the day he was trying to find out what was the real cause of the $25,000 youngster's downfall."

These critics, it appears, have entirely overlooked the fact that the Belmont Park straightaway course was new to Fountainblue. The horse had not raced over it and, it is reported, had never even worked over it. This is likely to have cut quite a figure in his racing. "Dogs" do not win races in such convincing style as he has scored his six victories. When he won that mile race at Brighton Beach in 1:40, he proved that he is a good horse. He is apt to make some of his traducers eat their words.
